EASLEY APPOINTS GREENE TO HISTORIC MURFREESBORO COMMISSION

RALEIGH – Gov. Mike Easley has appointed Jacqueline Greene of Halifax to the Historic Murfreesboro Commission.

Greene served as the director of the child development at the RiverStone (should there be a space in between River and Stone? or not*) Counseling and Personal Development Center in Roanoke Rapids. She has taught at schools in Tarboro, Aurora, Winterville, and Gaston. Green received her bachelor's degree in elementary education from East Carolina University in ****.

There are 34 members on the Historic Murfreesboro Commission, all serving five-year terms. The members oversee the acquisition, repair and restoration of historic properties in and near the town of Murfreesboro. The commission also researches and plans programs for the historic preservation of the town.
